William Tomlinson

Tomlinson Group

Background

William Tomlinson is the founder of Tomlinson Group, one of Ontario's leading integrated construction, environmental, and aggregates companies. Built from the ground up through entrepreneurial vision and determination, the Tomlinson Group has grown into a diversified organization supporting major infrastructure, environmental services, and community development across the province.

William established the company with a strong focus on innovation, operational excellence, and responsible growth. His leadership emphasized long-term investment, sustainability, and building trusted partnerships with municipalities, industry, and communities. Through decades of leadership, William Tomlinson created a lasting legacy that continues to shape Ontario's construction and aggregates sectors.
